

Badgers

A modern community-based home for adults with a learning disability and additional needs.

- Four bedroom home
- For individuals with learning disabilities
- Focus on independence and the ongoing development of life skills
- Highly trained staff providing 24 hour care

Badgers, based in the residential area of Pound Hill, Crawley, is a modern detached four-bed home that provides comfortable living accommodation for individuals with a learning disability or additional needs.

The property offers a wide range of facilities, including a particularly large kitchen and two lounges - one for day use and another for quiet use. There are three spacious bedrooms upstairs, one with an ensuite and the other two sharing a bathroom. There is also one bedroom with its own ensuite located on the ground floor.

Set in a quiet residential area, the home is well situated to aid community participation.

In addition, in nearby Crawley, there is a very wide variety of facilities including shops, a library, leisure centre, cinema, pubs, restaurants and numerous employment opportunities, in addition to good public transport links.

The service users are encouraged to be as independent as possible in all aspects of their daily lives and are actively involved in the running of their home. This helps enhance their daily living skills and team interaction.

The house is staffed 24 hours a day by experienced care workers with additional support available to provide both onsite and offsite educational and daytime activities.
